The Knox County Public Defender's Office located in Galesburg, Illinois, is accepting applications for a full-time Assistant Public Defender position. Applicants must be licensed to practice law in the State of Illinois or eligible to practice under Illinois Supreme Court Rule 711.

The Knox County Public Defender's Office consists of five full-time attorneys, four administrative support staff, a social worker and part-time investigator. Our office places an emphasis on working together as a team to provide outstanding representation for our clients. Duties will include the representation of clients in felony, misdemeanor, traffic, juvenile abuse and neglect, and juvenile delinquency cases. This is a great opportunity to gain immediate felony and trial experience.

Applicants should be able to multitask, have excellent organizational and communication skills, the ability to work well with others, a strong work ethic, and a commitment to public service and the representation of individuals who are unable to afford counsel.

Salary will be commensurate with experience in the range of $80,000.00 to $105,000.00. Compensation package includes health, dental, and life insurance, paid holidays and vacation, and participation in the Illinois Municipal Retirement Pension.

Interested persons may apply by faxing or emailing a cover letter, resume, and list of two references to:
